

ABOUT THE TAHAWUS CENTER WINDOWS GALLERY

Tahawus Center serves Au Sable Forks and the surrounding region with space where the art world and the village community engage with innovative projects. The over 100-year old historic Tahawus building is situated on Rt 9N Main St, near the scenic Ausable River, in Au Sable Forks, Town of Jay, NY.

The two upper floors focus entirely on cultural activities, offering dance and theater in the third floor Cloudsplitter Studio, and art and education enrichment on the second floor Windows Gallery.

Described as “an exciting new gem of a space” by the Lake Placid Visitors Bureau when it opened January 2011, Tahawus has created a gallery for dynamic artists' displays. Exhibits have included local photographers Mark Hobson, Todd Bissonette, and Jeri Wright, a collection of Rockwell Kent works, Arto Monaco, Mohawk of the Adirondacks, local and visiting artists, and “Here Come the Trains.” The Center is a flexible, entertaining, exciting gathering place for daytime and evening activities. Its perspective reflects the talents and personalities of the people it serves, and engages the community through the portal of art, and new points of view.

Tahawus develops a broader audience for contemporary art through multi-disciplinary visual installations. The Gallery provides a flexible environment to bring the community together to talk about, celebrate, and ponder the creative process. The Windows Gallery operates as a rental and co-production enterprise designed to showcase the creative output of Ausable Valley, using relevant themes which tap into many segments of the population. Curated by a panel of arts professionals, installations highlight works by local and visiting artists. Themes, medium, and expression vary. Exhibits can be 3 days to 3 months. Generally open afternoons on weekends, and by appointment anytime arranged with the exhibiting artist.

Location: at 14234 Main St on Rte 9N in Au Sable Forks. The sidewalk passing directly in front of Tahawus along the town's main street leads across the bridge to the sister town of Black Brook, making the Center an accessible spot of interest with plenty of foot traffic. The Gallery is prominently visible from the road and there is ample parking nearby and behind the building.
